Alumni and Student Newsletter

April 2016

Indiana University School of Nursing

Farewell and Thanks!

Pat Ebright PhD, RN, CNS, FAAN, Associate Professor and Associate Dean for Graduate Programs will be retiring from the IUSON May 31st, 2016 after 16 years with the school.

She completed her undergraduate and graduate masters' education at the University of Cincinnati College of Nursing and Health, and her PhD at Indiana University. Her healthcare experience includes 46 years as a registered nurse, with the first 28 years working as staff nurse, nurse manager, and clinical nurse specialist in acute care hospital settings. For the past 18 years she has taught in undergraduate and graduate nursing education programs. Pat's research focused on healthcare provider decision making in the context of actual care situations, and toward increasing understanding of the influence of work complexity on patient safety, quality of care, and the implications for system design and nursing education. She was a member of the first Patient Safety Leadership Fellowship class sponsored by the National Patient Safety Foundation, and completed a one-year informatics fellowship with the VA in Indianapolis. She continues to participate in research with the VA on transfers of care, and with Simon Cancer Center for patient and caregiver decision making regarding treatment options using cognitive task analysis interview techniques for data collection and analysis. Pat is looking forward to spending time in Indianapolis with her daughter, son-in-law and two grandsons, as well as in Glen Arbor

Michigan playing more tennis, reading more novels, hiking, biking, and hearing about the much anticipated and wonderful accomplishments of nursing colleagues and graduates of the IUSON. Pat wants all CNSs to know that her participation in the education of CNS students, and also past service on the NACNS Board of Directors and conference attendance will always be a highlight of her career.

Preceptor's Corner

The Annual CNS Preceptor Meeting will take place on Wednesday, May 11, 2016, from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at the IU School of Nursing, Room NU 127. A lite dinner will be served, and parking validation for Vermont Street Garage will be provided. If you plan to attend, RSVP to Jasmine Mosley. Space is limited so RSVP early!

Congratulations

Sue Storey, PhD, RN, AOCNS was selected as one of ten nurse scientists in the country to participate in the 2016 Oncology Nursing Society Foundation-Oncology Nurse Scientist Intensive. The purpose of the intensive is to mentor PhD prepared nurse scientists in enhancing proposals for submission for research funding. The internship will be held on 4/26 & 4/27 prior to the annual ONS Congress meeting in San Antonio, TX.

Staci Sue (Wuchner) Reynolds PhD, RN successfully defended her dissertation on Friday, April 1, 2016. Title: Implementation Strategies to Improve Critical Care Nurses' Knowledge of and Adherence to Evidence-Based Guidelines.

Cheryl Lynn Wolverton PhD, RN successfully defended her dissertation on Monday, April 4, 2016. Title: Staff Nurses' Perceptions of Nurse Manager Caring behaviors: Psychometric testing of the Caring Assessment Tool – Administration (CAT-Adm).

Mitchell Knisely, PhD, RN-BC, ACNS-BC successfully defended his dissertation on Thursday, April 21, 2016. Title: Understanding Patters of Exposure to Pharmacogenetically Actionable Opioids in Primary Care.

New Admissions

Welcome to our new admissions! Be sure to keep in touch with your peers through the newsletter!

Adult Gerontology CNS Students

Kristopher Elkins, Kara Howery, Lauren Perrey, Hannah Rawlinson, Elizabeth Weaver, Michelle Wood, Natalie Woodson

Pediatric CNS Students

Lauren Hedlund, Emily Storkman, Elizabeth Wertz, Emily Wing

Admission Procedures

Adult/Gerontology CNS program is accepting applications year-round. Interested nurses may apply for the program at any time; Students will be admitted on an ongoing basis until all openings are filled with qualified candidates. Students will start the program Fall semester, regardless of when the student submits the application and receives the letter of admission. For example, an applicant submitting in April 2016, if admitted, will start the program in Fall 2016. If the student is denied admission because the program has reached capacity, the student may reapply for admission the following Fall semester.

Pediatric CNS program applications are being accepted for the students to start in Fall 2017. Visit the Peds CNS section of our website; applications are accepted year-round.

For more information about CNS program enrollment, contact Lisa Thompson

Financial Resources for Graduate Students

Students pursuing a graduate degree from the Indiana University School of Nursing can take advantage of a number of resources to help fund their education.

Scholarships are available for graduate nursing students. The IUPUI Office of Student Scholarships offers an online resource for scholarship information and applications. Students can access details about campus-based scholarship awards as well as helpful tips on searching for external scholarships available through other agencies and organizations. Visit the IUPUI Office of Student Scholarships. The Indiana University School of Nursing also awards over $700,000 in scholarships each year to current undergraduate and graduate students. Review detailed information about available awards. In addition to institutional and private scholarships, students can also explore scholarships from national nursing organizations. The American Association of Colleges of Nursing and Johnson & Johnson are excellent resources for information about national nursing scholarships.

Federal student loans, including the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan and Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan programs, are also available for graduate students. These loans offer affordable interest rates and flexible repayment plans to assist students in covering their tuition, fees, book costs, and other educational expenses. For students interested in teaching, the Nurse Faculty Loan Program (NFLP) provides loan funds to help registered nurses complete a graduate education to become qualified nurse faculty. Participating IU School of Nursing students who agree to complete a core component of education-related courses in a qualifying program can receive NFLP funds to help cover the costs of their tuition, fees, and books. Following graduation, students who secure employment as full-time nursing faculty at an accredited school of nursing are eligible to receive a low interest rate, deferred repayment, and partial loan cancellation. Students maintaining full-time faculty employment for 4 years after graduation can have 85 percent of their loan forgiven.

Many graduate students also utilize alternative financial aid resources to help fund their graduate education. Veterans and members of the U.S. Armed Forces and their dependents may be eligible to receive financial assistance for their education. Visit IUPUI Office for Veterans and Military Personnel for additional information. Many of our students also take advantage of tuition assistance or reimbursement through their employer.

For answers to your questions and information about available financial resources for Indiana University School of Nursing graduate students, please contact Nathan Lohr, Assistant Director of Student Financial Services, at 317-274-5920.

American Assembly for Men in Nursing

AAMN is the only professional organization for nurses that has improved gender inclusion in nursing profession by offering an environment of belongingness and collective learning for its members to excel in the profession. IU Health AAMN is the only chapter in the state of Indiana. It is open to men and women with membership ranging from nursing students to nursing professionals.

Regular chapter meetings held every third Tuesday. Check out the AAMN website Questions? Contact Marsha Baker.
